INITIAL:

On 3/11/2026, reported that a suspicious individual, later identified as Tyler Shaw, arrived at his home acting as a UPS worker and dropped off a package of rubber ducks.

CONTACT

CONTACT WITH BENJAMIN ADAMS:

I then responded to the scene. When arriving, I observed one vehicle oddly parked on blocking a residence's driveway. The vehicle was occupied by one individual, later identified as Benjamin Adams. wife advised that she observed Adams recording the residence prior to law enforcement arriving on scene. I then approached the vehicle on foot and made contact with Adams.

When speaking with Adams he initially stated that he was there to pick up his friend for a date. I asked Adams if I could see his camera roll to see if he had photographed the home. Adam's consented, and when doing so Adams hesitated and stated that he his a videographer that documents abandoned buildings and architecture. Adams further explained that he did take a "picture" of the residence but it was only for his photography.

Adams then presented his phone and consented to observing his camera roll. One of the most recent captures in the camera roll was a video that was recording as he was walking around the curtilage of his home while on the phone. The timing and body language of is believed to be in line with when was speaking on the phone with myself prior to my arrival.

Adams then recanted his statements advising that he had been lying. Adams stated that Schneider had flown into Utah the day prior and had reached out to him for help in filming. Adams stated that Schneider was paying him for his assistance in videoing. Adams consented to me photographing the text messages. The messages have been attached to the case.

Adams then stated that Schneider was on scene prior to our arrival and left in another vehicle, believed to be a dark Hyundai Elantra that was seen in the area.

At this point, Adams was notified that he was trespassed from the residence. Adams was notified and released on scene without further.

CONTACT WITH BENJAMIN SCHNEIDER:

On initial arrival, had advised me about dark colored Hyundai Elantra and stated that he believed the vehicle was also involved. Officer Richardson stopped the vehicle for traffic violations. See Officer Richardson's supplement for further on the initial traffic stop.

After contact with Adams, I responded to Officer Richardson's traffic stop. Prior to my arrival to Officer Richardson's stop, Officer Richardson advised that an individual that identified himself as Benjamin Schneider was located within the vehicle that was stopped.

When arriving I made contact with two males identified as Tyler Shaw and Benjamin Schneider. Shaw was in the driver seat of the vehicle and Schneider was located in the rear passenger seat.

Both males had recording devices that were running during the entirety of the interaction.

Schneider explained that he was in Utah filming a Youtube series in regards to the civil proceedings out of Oregon. Schneider stated that he was representing the son of the business owner that was currently in civil proceedings against Schneider claimed that in two weeks would have a warrant for his arrest out of Oregon and that he was in Utah to attempt to get either the property that was claimed to be stolen or the equivalent in money, reported to be $100,000, from prior to the warrant being issued. Schneider stated that if gave the money or property back, that the warrant would not be issued. Schneider stated that he only wanted to speak with and see if he could get him to come to an agreement or hand over the property.

Both males in the vehicle denied any involvement in dropping the package off earlier that morning. Both males stated that they did not know the females that assisted them earlier due to just meeting them, but confirmed that they were involved.

Both Shaw and Schneider were notified that they were trespassed from the property and that they could not return. Both males acknowledged and advised they understood that they were trespassed.

Both males were then released on scene.

TRESPASS NOTICE:

BENJAMIN ADAMS -- -- SUSPECT / TRESPASSED
TYLER SHAW -- -- SUSPECT / TRESPASSED

DIGITIAL INFORMATION:

When reviewing the digital footage that provided, it was found that Tyler Shaw was the individual that impersonated a UPS driver and dropped off the package to the residence.

Shortly after leaving the scene called in a follow-up stating that Schneider was attempting to contact him by phone on multiple different numbers. stated that he did not want any contact with Schneider. I advised him to notify the numbers that he did not want any contact and block the numbers.

Photos and the video obtained from Adams have been attached to the case.

DISPOSITION:

Multiple individuals were notified of trespass and no criminal charges were filed for anyone involved. Schneider and his involved persons were advised to allow the Oregon courts to handle the matter and to not harass the

I was unable to identify the female individuals involved. Due to this I informed Schnieder that involved persons would be trespassed and to not send additional individuals to the residence.

END OF REPORT.

Supplemental report

I assisted Officer Tonga in this case. I arrived on scene and was immediately told that a potential suspect involved was leaving the scene in a black passenger vehicle. I flipped my patrol vehicle around to try and follow the suspect and hopefully gather a license plate. While doing so, I observed the vehicle fail to stop before the stop line at a stop sign, as well as failure to come to a complete stop. I initiated a traffic stop on this vehicle at in American For.

I approached the driver side of the vehicle and began contact with this person. I asked the driver for a driver's license, he was identified as Tyler Shaw. One of the first things I observed was Tyler had a rear passenger that was sitting behind the passenger seat, holding a camera. I noticed numerous cameras were filming me during this encounter. Out of mutual conversation, I found the passenger to be Ben Schneider. Ben shared a youtube handle known as Reckless Ben and began boasting about the channel and what he does.

I listened to Ben as Officer Tonga came to our location for his investigation. While waiting, Ben told me about a civil situation involving one of our American Fork residents and what he was doing to get money from the resident. I asked no incriminating questions and just listened with my body worn camera recording. I took no action on the traffic offenses and turned the scene over to Officer Tonga.
